Feta is Betta!

You can use Feta in salads, seafood sautes, casseroles, stuffing, stews, and more. Feta tastes great with olives, vegetables, fruit, seafood, and chicken.

- Snack/Appetizer: Whip with a little olive oil; serve as a dip with breadsticks or warm pita bread.
- Entree: Use Wisconsin Feta in classic Greek dishes: Greek salad, spanakopita, and dolmas.
- Entree: In a saute pan, brown Wisconsin Feta and toss with Pasta.
- Pizza: Top with olives, vegetables and a sprinkling of Wisconsin Feta.

Additional Tips

- When you need additional brine, mix 1 tablespoon salt per cup of cool water.
- Feta browns nicely and can be sauteed without melting.
- To reduce the salt content of Feta, rinse it with cold water or soak in water or milk prior to serving.
