

Mindfulness made easy.

eSmartr
is now available from VoxxLife!

It starts with a special tactile pattern.

eSmartr's Cognitive Boost Technology™ translates skin sensation into neural activity for a drug-free, non-invasive approach to feel more connected, less stressed and just a lot more mindful.

VIBROTACTILE PATTERN

Activates receptors in the skin to generate signals processed by the brain.

Benefits

Wearing the Sleeve™™ can lead directly to:

REDUCED STRESS & ANXIETY

Approach your days with peace and calm to get the most out of each one.

ENHANCED CLARITY

Enhance each day with increased clarity to keep your best ideas coming.

IMPROVED MEMORY

Don't miss out on the small details that make huge differences.

INCREASED FOCUS & ATTENTION

Get the most out of every moment by giving each one your undivided attention.

PLAY LONGER

Get in the zone faster. Stay in the zone longer. With increased attention and memory,

LEARN FASTER

Unlock your learning potential and build confidence through increased attention and the ability to retain and process information.

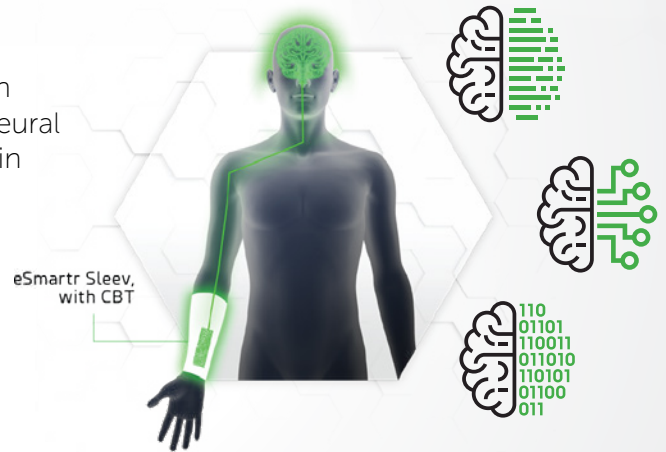

CREATE MORE

Enhance your creative development. Naturally optimize neural performance with increased attention and processing of information.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

The proprietary Cognitive Boost Technology™ pattern embedded in every Sleeve™ is designed to optimize neural communications. Through vibrotactile stimulation, skin receptors are triggered to generate a combination of signals. These signals are processed by the cognitive networks to allow users to naturally experience their passions more fully with focus, clarity and calmness. The combination of these signals help streamline the cognitive networks, resulting in scientifically-proven amplified cognitive abilities.

"For me, I want to be able to experience the rest of my life now after the height of my freestyle career, but still be successful in different avenues."

"It looks like I've gone from crazy congestion to free-flowing roads. And it kind of feels like that mentally. I definitely feel a little bit more relaxed with it on."

"I knew that I wanted to pursue a career in the health and fitness industry, but I wanted to be unique and innovative and do it in my own way."

"It can become really overwhelming... being inundated with so many things going on throughout your day. And I find with the eSmartr Sleeve, it helps to detox that clutter that's going on in your head."
