

Strength In Connection, Success In Independence.

At PERC, we are dedicated to helping great doctors execute great business strategies. Join us and discover the power of strength in connections, while on your path to success in independence.

Elevate Your Business

The PERC study groups unite like-minded practice owners and industry business leaders to work collaboratively on addressing business challenges and achieving greater profitability. Through this collaborative effort, members can share knowledge and expertise, explore new ideas, and develop effective strategies to overcome obstacles and achieve success as business owners.

P3 Study Groups

Thoughtfully comprised groups of colleagues harnessing their collective wisdom and experiences, while leveraging PERC's proven tools and resources to help their practices win.

Members meet in-person twice per year with a commitment to transparency, trust, and driving results

Performance History

Our study groups have a proven formula that delivers significantly improved sales and profitability.

Knowledge Sharing

P3 members have access to a network of peers and experts who understand the unique challenges and opportunities of independent practice ownership.

Results Focused

We provide valuable insight, proven strategies, and actionable solutions to overcome obstacles and optimize our members' success.