10	1957 Kopke Colheita Tawny Port	Citizens Bank is celebrating its 65th year with the vision that we, like this wine, get better with age. Hand-picked grapes grown along the Douro River in Portugal were harvested 65 years ago to make this fine Colheita Tawny Port. The centuries-old oak barrel aging process produces a smoky flavor and an amber colored finish on this fine port rated 95 points by Wine Spectator. "Baked pear, dried apricot and roasted apple flavors dominate in this mature yet fresh-tasting version. White pepper and lightly smoky notes show on the fresh finish. Rich and complex."	Citizens Bank	$489
