Who We Are

Neighborhoods in The Great Outdoors segment are found in pastoral settings throughout the United States. Consumers are educated empty nesters living an active but modest lifestyle. Their focus is land. They are more likely to invest in real estate or a vacation home than stocks. They are active gardeners and partial to homegrown and home-cooked meals. Although retirement beckons, most of these residents still work, with incomes slightly above the U.S. level.

Our Neighborhood

- More than 55% of households are married-couple families; 36% are couples with no children living at home.
- Average household size is slightly smaller at 2.43.
- Typical of areas with rustic appeal, the housing inventory features single-family homes (76%) and mobile homes (16%); a significant inventory of seasonal housing is available.
- Residents live in small towns and rural communities throughout the West, South and Northeast regions of the country.
- More than half of all homes were constructed between 1970 and 2000.
- Most households have one or two vehicles; average travel time to work is slightly higher (28 minutes) despite a disproportionate number that work from home.

Market Profile

- Satellite dishes and riding lawn mowers are familiar sights in these rural settings, along with multiple vehicles; four-wheel drive trucks are popular, too.
- Residents are members of AARP and veterans' clubs and support various civic causes.
- Technology is not central in their lives: light use of Internet connectivity for shopping and entertainment.
- Most households have pets—dogs or cats.
- Television channels such as CMT, History, and Fox News are popular.
- They enjoy outdoor activities such as hiking, hunting, fishing and boating.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Nearly 60% have attended college or hold a degree.
- Unemployment is lower at 8%, but so is labor force participation at 60%.
- Typical of neighborhoods with older residents, income from retirement and Social Security is common, but residents also derive income from self-employment and investments.
- Residents are very do-it-yourself oriented and cost conscious.
- Many service their own autos, work on home improvement and remodeling projects, and maintain their own yards.
- They prefer domestic travel to trips abroad.

An overview of who makes up this segment across the United States

Who We Are

Middleburg neighborhoods transformed from the easy pace of country living to semi-rural subdivisions in the last decade, when the housing boom reached out. Residents are conservative, family-oriented consumers. Still more country than rock and roll, they are thrifty but willing to carry some debt and are already investing in their futures. They rely on their smartphones and mobile devices to stay in touch and pride themselves on their expertise. They prefer to buy American and travel in the U.S. This market is younger but growing in size and assets.

Our Neighborhood

- Semi-rural locales within metropolitan areas.
- Neighborhoods changed rapidly in the previous decade with the addition of new single-family homes.
- Include a number of mobile homes.
- Affordable housing, median value of $158,000 with a low vacancy rate.
- Young couples, many with children; average household size is 2.73.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Education: 66% with a high school diploma or some college.
- Unemployment rate lower at 7.4%.
- Labor force participation typical of a younger population at 66.7%.
- Traditional values are the norm here—faith, country and family.
- Prefer to buy American and for a good price.
- Comfortable with the latest in technology, for convenience (online banking or saving money on landlines) and entertainment.

Market Profile

- Residents are partial to trucks, SUVs, and occasionally, convertibles or motorcycles.
- Entertainment is primarily family-oriented, TV and movie rentals or theme parks and family restaurants.
- Spending priorities also focus on family (children's toys and apparel) or home DIY projects.
- Sports include hunting, target shooting, bowling and baseball.
- TV and magazines provide entertainment and information.
- Media preferences include country and Christian channels.

2.5%
of households fall
into this segment

An overview of who makes up this segment across the United States

Who We Are

Midlife Constants residents are seniors, at or approaching retirement, with below average labor force participation and above average net worth. Although located in predominantly metropolitan areas, they live outside the central cities, in smaller communities. Their lifestyle is more country than urban. They are generous, but not spendthrifts.

Our Neighborhood

- Older homes (most built before 1980) found in the suburban periphery of smaller metropolitan markets.
- Primarily married couples, with a growing share of singles.
- Settled neighborhoods with slow rates of change and residents that have lived in the same house for years.
- Single-family homes, less than half still mortgaged, with a median home value of $141,000.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Education: 64% have a high school diploma or some college.
- Unemployment is lower in this market at 7.4%, but so is the labor force participation rate.
- Almost 42% of households are receiving Social Security; 28% also receive retirement income.
- Traditional, not trendy; opt for convenience and comfort, not cutting-edge. Technology has its uses, but the bells and whistles are a bother.
- Attentive to price, but not at the expense of quality, they prefer to buy American and natural products.
- Radio and newspapers are the media of choice (after television).

Market Profile

- Prefer practical vehicles like SUVs and trucks (domestic, of course).
- Sociable, church-going residents belonging to fraternal orders, veterans' clubs and charitable organizations and do volunteer work and fund-raising.
- Contribute to arts/cultural, educational, political and social services organizations.
- DIY homebodies that spend on home improvement and gardening.
- Media preferences: country or Christian channels.
- Leisure activities include scrapbooking, movies at home, reading, fishing and golf.

for this area

In this area

10.8%

of households fall
into this segment

In the United States

3.2%

of households fall
into this segment

An overview of who makes up this segment across the United States

Who We Are

The Green Acres lifestyle features country living and self-reliance. They are avid do-it-yourselfers, maintaining and remodeling their homes, with all the necessary power tools to accomplish the jobs. Gardening, especially growing vegetables, is also a priority, again with the right tools, tillers, tractors and riding mowers. Outdoor living also features a variety of sports: hunting and fishing, motorcycling, hiking and camping, and even golf. Self-described conservatives, residents of Green Acres remain pessimistic about the near future yet are heavily invested in it.

Our Neighborhood

- Rural enclaves in metropolitan areas, primarily (not exclusively) older homes with acreage; new housing growth in
- the past 10 years.
- Single-family, owner-occupied housing, with a median value of $197,000.
- An older market, primarily married couples, most with no children.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Education: 60% are college educated.
- Unemployment is low at 6%; labor force participation rate is high at 67.4%.
- Income is derived not only from wages and salaries but also from self-employment (more than 15% of households), investments (30% of households), and increasingly, from retirement.
- They are cautious consumers with a focus on quality and durability.
- Comfortable with technology, more as a tool than a trend: banking or paying bills online is convenient; but the Internet is not viewed as entertainment.
- Economic outlook is professed as pessimistic, but consumers are comfortable with debt, primarily as home and auto loans, and investments.

Market Profile

- Purchasing choices reflect Green Acres residents country life, including a variety of vehicles from trucks and SUVs to ATVs and motorcycles, preferably late model.
- Homeowners favor DIY home improvement projects and gardening.
- Media of choice are provided by satellite service, radio and television, also with an emphasis on country and home and garden.
- Green Acres residents pursue physical fitness vigorously, from working out on home exercise equipment to playing a variety of sports.
- Residents are active in their communities and a variety of social organizations, from fraternal orders to veterans' clubs.

About this segment

Exurbanites

This is the

#5

dominant segment
for this area

In this area

10.4%

of households fall
into this segment

In the United States

1.9%

of households fall
into this segment

An overview of who makes up this segment across the United States

Who We Are

Exurbanites residents are approaching retirement but showing few signs of slowing down. They are active in their communities, generous in their donations, and seasoned travelers. They take advantage of their proximity to large metropolitan centers to support the arts, but prefer a more expansive home style in less crowded neighborhoods. They have cultivated a lifestyle that is both affluent and urbane.

Our Neighborhood

- Established neighborhoods (most built between 1970 and 1990) found in the suburban periphery of large metropolitan markets.
- A larger market of empty nesters, married couples with no children; average household size is 2.48.
- Primarily single-family homes with a high median value of $346,000, most still carrying mortgages.
- Higher vacancy rate at 9%.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Residents are college educated; more than half have a bachelor's degree or higher; almost 80% have some college education.
- This labor force is beginning to retire. One in three households currently receive Social Security or retirement income. Labor force participation has declined to less than 60%.
- Unemployment remains low at 5.5%; more of the residents prefer self-employment or working from home.
- Consumers are more interested in quality than cost. They take pride in their homes and foster a sense of personal style.
- Exurbanites residents are well connected, using the Internet for everything from shopping to managing their finances.
- Sociable and hardworking, they still find time to stay physically fit.

Market Profile

- Exurbanites residents' preferred vehicles are late-model luxury cars or SUVs.
- They are active supporters of the arts and public television/radio.
- Attentive to ingredients, they prefer natural or organic products.
- Gardening and home improvement are priorities, but they also use a number of services, from home care and maintenance to personal care.
- Financially active with wide-ranging investments, these investors rely on financial planners, extensive reading and the Internet to handle their money.
