Who We Are

Exurbanites residents are approaching retirement but showing few signs of slowing down. They are active in their communities, generous in their donations, and seasoned travelers. They take advantage of their proximity to large metropolitan centers to support the arts, but prefer a more expansive home style in less crowded neighborhoods. They have cultivated a lifestyle that is both affluent and urbane.

Our Neighborhood

- Established neighborhoods (most built between 1970 and 1990) found in the suburban periphery of large metropolitan markets
- A larger market of empty nesters, married couples with no children; average household size is 2.48.
- Primarily single-family homes with a high median value of $346,000, most still carrying mortgages.
- Higher vacancy rate at 9%.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Residents are college educated; more than half have a bachelor's degree or higher; almost 80% have some college education.
- This labor force is beginning to retire. One in three households currently receive Social Security or retirement income. Labor force participation has declined to less than 60%.
- Unemployment remains low at 5.5%; more of the residents prefer self-employment or working from home.
- Consumers are more interested in quality than cost. They take pride in their homes and foster a sense of personal style.
- Exurbanites residents are well connected, using the Internet for everything from shopping to managing their finances.
- Sociable and hardworking, they still find time to stay physically fit.

Market Profile

- Exurbanites residents' preferred vehicles are late-model luxury cars or SUVs.
- They are active supporters of the arts and public television/radio.
- Attentive to ingredients, they prefer natural or organic products.
- Gardening and home improvement are priorities, but they also use a number of services, from home care and maintenance to personal care.
- Financially active with wide-ranging investments, these investors rely on financial planners, extensive reading and the Internet to handle their money.
