Who We Are

Practical Parks and Rec suburbanites have achieved the dream of home ownership. They have purchased homes that are within their means. Their homes are older, and townhomes and duplexes are not uncommon. Many of these families are two-income married couples approaching retirement age; they are comfortable in their jobs and their homes, budget wisely, but do not plan on retiring anytime soon or moving. Neighborhoods are well established, as are the amenities and programs that supported their now independent children through school and college. The appeal of these kid-friendly neighborhoods is now attracting a new generation of young couples.

Our Neighborhood

- Homes are primarily owner-occupied, singlefamily residences built prior to 1970; townhomes and duplexes are scattered through the neighborhoods.
- Both median home value and average rent are close to the national level.
- Households by type mirror the U.S. distribution; married couples, more without children, dominate. Average household size is slightly lower at 2.49, but this market is also a bit older.

Socioeconomic Traits

- More than half of the population is college educated.
- Older residents draw Social Security and retirement income.
- The work force is diverse: professionals in health care, retail trade and education, or skilled workers in manufacturing and construction.
- This is a financially shrewd market; consumers are careful to research their big-ticket purchases
- When planning trips, they search for discounted airline fares and hotels and choose to vacation within the U.S.
- These practical residents tend to use their cell phones for calls and texting only.

Market Profile

- Cost and practicality come first when purchasing a vehicle; Parks and Rec residents are more likely to buy domestic SUVs or trucks over compact or subcompact vehicles.
- Budget-conscious consumers stock up on staples at warehouse clubs.
- Pass time at home watching documentaries on Animal Planet, Discovery or History channels. For an outing, they choose to dine out at family-style restaurants and attend movies. Between trips to the casinos, they gamble on lottery tickets and practice their blackjack and poker skills online.
- Convenience is important in the kitchen; they regularly use frozen or packaged main course meals. Ground coffee is preferred over coffee beans.
- Residents here take advantage of local parks and recreational activities. Their exercise routine is a balance of home-based exercise; a session at their local community gym; or a quick jog, swim or run.
